

Notice

The Contents of the charts affected by earthquakes etc. occurred offshore Pacific Ocean in Tohoku region in Japan

By earthquakes occurred offshore Pacific Ocean in Tohoku region in Japan at two forty-six p.m. on 11th March 2011 and Tsunami which was caused by the earthquakes, variations of the coast lines and existance of Foul Bottoms (i.e. houses and vehicles) on the seafloor which were pushed and flowed from land area in the east coast of Honshu and each ports and harbours. Users are aware that contents of the charts may be different from existing situations. Notices to Mariners about these matters will be issued as soon as survey results are received.